

Greetings!

Welcome to the online community at First Parish Church (United Church of Christ) in Freeport! We want to meet you in person, of course, but we celebrate this opportunity to introduce our church online and answer your questions!

On this web page you'll find some brief but important information:

- who we are and what we stand for
- where we are and how to find us
- what we offer and how to access it

You'll also find some ways to participate here online. I post a public Pastor's Blog each week that I invite you to read and comment on. (There is also a separate discussion group available to members of the church). You can also contact me directly by email (pastor@freeportucc.org) and I will get back to you as soon as I can.

You may have come to this website out of curiosity, or to seek worship times and directions, or to seek new answers to old questions as your life grows and changes (and we all experience tumultuous times!). At First Parish we do not promise to have all the answers. We, too, are growing and changing! But we do promise to welcome you, to seek God's guidance in all our questions, and to affirm with you the simple joys of companionship, respect and ever-growing love.

So check us out online and stop by in person! I look forward to meeting you!

Blessings and peace to you in all things (without exception!),

Rev. Peter Heinrichs
